

FAA Certificates:

- Commercial Rotorcraft Helicopter
- Instrument Rotorcraft Helicopter
- CFI and CFII Rotorcraft Helicopter
- First Class Medical (June 2009)

Aircraft:

- R-22.....996 hours
- R-44.....349 hours

Hours: 1345 total time

- PIC.....1262 hours
- Cross-Country.....425 hours
- Night Cross-Country.....75 hours
- Mountain Time.....150 hours
- Night (unaided).....106 hours
- Instructor.....1080 hours
- Instrument (simulated).....38 hours
- Instrument (as instructor).....250 hours

Helicopter Work Experience & Education

Check Instructor (141) Silverhawk Aviation; Caldwell, ID June '08 – February '09
Administered end-of-course tests as well as flight and ground stage checks in Robinson helicopters. Monitored other instructors and student progress to ensure FAA and school standards were upheld. Implemented more efficient ways to ensure proper procedures were followed.

Instructor (141) Silverhawk Aviation; Caldwell, ID March '07 – June '08
Provided flight and ground instruction to helicopter students from private through CFII under 14 CFR 91 and 141.

Helicopter Student Silverhawk Aviation; Caldwell, ID Graduated June '07
Completed the school's Professional Pilot Course, obtaining my private, commercial, instructor, instrument and instrument instructor licenses in helicopters.

Special Training and Qualifications

- Robinson Factory Safety Course (May 2006)
- Wings Pilot Proficiency Level 1 (May 2006)
- CPR/AED Certified Instructor; ASHI (Dec. 2009)
- Leadership Practicum; Boise, ID (Jan. – Dec. 2007)

Other Work Experience

Operations/Front Desk Manager Bally Total Fitness; Houston, TX July 2009 – Present
Have created and implemented systems to maximize customer relationships and service, and employee productivity and satisfaction. Responsible for compiling daily reports concerning business, revenue and operations, as well as handling all cash.

Server Asiago's Ristorante & The Mona Lisa; Boise & Nampa, ID August '05 – June '09
Employed multi-tasking and organizational skills in a fast-paced environment, while providing excellent customer service.

Therapy Aid Transitions Inc.; Idaho Falls, ID June '03 – September '04
Provided individual and group therapy to adults and children with developmental disabilities.